“ Michael and I were so happy that we were able to attend the service for Elizabeth. We thought Rusty did a great job with his eulogy. Elizabeth was the sweetest, nicest, most genuine person we have ever met. On the way home, Michael sang a song that Elizabeth taught in Vacation Bible School. It was about the 12 disciples. Michael said that was the way he always remembered who they were. I will always remember her beautiful voice. I feel like all of you are part of my family. I was so happy to see all of you. God Bless you in this special time. Love.

“ My dear Harrison family.....so many happy memories of being at your home with Louise when we were growing up. Elizabeth was one of the kindest, sweetest and true example of a christian that I have ever known. May God in His infinite wisdom give each of you that "peace that passeth all understanding" at this time. Praise be to Jesus in knowing that we know she is with Him. All my love, Patricia Stewart Davis “ What an incredible lady! A true and faithful follower and servant of Christ, a loving friend, a great example of courage in the face of trials, and a sister who loved her family greatly. I will miss her greatly, as I know you will. I look forward to the day I worship with her again!
