“ Elizabeth was a wonderful friend to my Mom. She would clean her house, then they would have snacks and watch the Braves play. Elizabeth had tireless energy. If she thought the flower bed needed weeding, she would do that. Mom looked forward to the days she was coming, have snacks and popcorn ready. Rest in peace Elizabeth. Maybe Mom has snacks ready for you in heaven.

“ To the Hoopaugh family. When I would leave at 6 am she would yell good morning and to be careful and I love you. She would call to see what I was doing and to say she was thinking of me. I would call her to meet me outside for a hug. Most of all were gonna miss seeing her outside. We love you and miss you . Moe and Tam Johnson and Jeff
