

Elizabeth Kerns

June 28, 1923 - October 15, 2014

Elizabeth Mae Kerns, 91, of Grayson, GA, passed away peacefully on October 15th, 2014. Her spirit is carried on through her sister, Ann Meili; 5 children, Deanna (John) Snare, Sharlene (Paul) Crofford, Robert (Elizabeth) Kerns, Jean (Howell) Powers, and Donald Kerns; 12 grandchildren, several great-grandchildren, and her furry companion, Candy. Although she was born in Lincoln, KS, Elizabeth called many places around the world home, as an army wife-Kansas, France, Germany, New York and lastly, Georgia. During her lifetime, Elizabeth stole the hearts of everyone she met and became known as "Grandma" to many more than just her grandchildren. Although there are not enough words to describe everything that she was, it is certain that she was a loving wife and mother, a tenderhearted grandmother and a loyal friend and neighbor. She was truly one of a kind and all are grateful for the days, months, or years that they were graced with her presence. Elizabeth is preceded in death by her husband of more than 63 years, Clinton; son, James; siblings, James, Frances, Cecil, Robert and Donald; and pets Snuggles, Coco and Koby. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, October 18th, 2014 at 2 p.m. at Tim Stewart Funeral Home located at 300 Simonton Road SW Lawrenceville, GA 30046.770-962-3100. “ *Nous sommes de tout cœur avec vous.
Nous n'oublierons jamais votre maman.
Toute l'affection que nos mères avaient l'une
pour l'autre, cette grande amitié qui les a réunie plus de trente ans.

“ I so enjoyed taking care of Elizabeth and spending time with her. We enjoyed taking walks, playing cards and laughing a lot. I will sure miss her sweet smile. My deepest sympathies go out to Howell, Jean and the girls.
