“ My sympathy to the family. It is sad to read about someone so young who touched so many lives has died. May you all find comfort in reading specific accounts in the Bible about the resurrection. Please read the account about a young woman named Tabitha who also abounded in good deeds, at Acts 9:36-42. The bible also promises that "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15###imported-begin##C Phillips###imported-end##

“ I am a substitute teacher at Craig and worked with and for Beth for the last 8 years. She taught me so much about how to love Special Needs children. She always made me feel like I was part of their team. She and I shared many stories about our families and encouraged one another. We both loved Law & Order and CSI. It was always fun to discuss the episodes! Beth, your struggle is over and now you are dancing with God in the heavens. We will miss you so much but know that you are in a better place. Now you can watch over all those you loved!! It's what you did best!! Love you, Cindy :)###imported-begin##Cindy Woo-Nichols###imported-end##

“ I search for words to say how much Beth meant to me, but words don't seem to be enough . Over the past 6 years she grew to become my best friend. A constant in my family's life. We not only shared a house but she was a part of my family. I can not count the hours that we spent talking about life, doing crafts or just watching crime shows on TV. No matter what happen between us, we could never stay mad at each other for longer than an hour or so. I count it a blessing and an honor to have been there for her everyday since she got sick. No matter who told me I was crazy, it was where I was suppose to be.

Garrett, Grayson and Ryan will never have another Wah-Wah. They don't understand right now that she won't be with us anymore. They still call for her when Mommy or Daddy doesn't give them their way. They still go into her room expecting her to be there. They think that heaven is just a vacation- and she'll be back. No one will ever fill her shoes in their life.

It is with a broken heart that we lean to cherish the memories that we have with her, that we learn to cope with out her. Her memory will never die in our house. We will never let our children forget how much they were loved and spoiled by their Wah-Wah.

We love you, Beth! You will forever be in our hearts, your name on our lips, and your pictures on our walls!##imported-begin##Crystal, Daniel & Boys! ##imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened by Beth's passing, but find solace in knowing that she is at peace with God. I am truly blessed to have spent 14 years working in the classroom with Beth. She was a wonderful teacher, sharing her knowledge and wisdom with so many children. She always treated me with such kindness and respect that made working with her an enjoyable part of my life. I will treasure the memory of those years forever. Heaven has surely gained a new angel.##imported-begin##Jan McCabe##imported-end##

“ This is what I shared with Beth's Craig family on Monday; "it is with a saddened heart that I tell you the day I have both dreaded and prayed for finally came. Beth was released from her struggle with ovarian cancer this morning. As I sat in church I had such a feeling of peace come over me and I knew Beth was with me, as she has been for 18 years. Her nephew's wife, Crystal and brother's wife, Stephanie (and two beloved cats) held vigil through a very trying hospice time and kept Beth as comfortable as possible through her pain. She was surrounded by your visits, love, thoughts and prayers. Her strength was her testament in all she did. She lived the life she wanted and blessed so many people, but most importantly children, over her lifetime. Looking out for the underdog was God's plan for her and he provided her with the gift of teaching students with emotional and behavioral disorders. She loved children and animals alike and had the knack of knowing how to help them. I know we will all miss her and the support and solace she found at Craig will help us all manage at this time. Maria and I had a fantastic journey with Beth striving to make an impact on children. We are blessed knowing she will now guide us, with God's help, from above. We share your grief and celebrate with you her life. She was a gem.##imported-begin##Penny Servies and Maria Betancourt##imported-end##

“ Although our time was limited it was great for a while. I can remember growing up and can recall the most wonderful memories of us as children. I didn't always make the best choices but you did! You choose to devote your life to teaching children who most people would label challenged or difficult but you consider it your privledge to be their teacher. I will always admire your courage and will look back on our time together as a blessing. YOU WILL BE MISSED!!!!!! Your famly loves you and looks forward to being with you again. Say hello to Gangy & Grandaddy and make sure you look in on me from time to time. I LOVE YOU!!!!!!##imported-begin##Amy Lynn Greene##imported-end##

“ Beth,

You were an amazing woman. Your love of family, animals and especially children will always be an inspiration to all of us who had the joy of knowing you. I feel truly blessed to have been able to be a part of your life and have you a part of mine and more than taht to have had you be a wonderful Aunt to my boys. You may be physically gone but will always be in our hearts and souls, and I promise you will NEVER be forgotten. We love you very much. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Stephanie Reagin##imported-end##

“ To the family of Elizabeth Greene,
I just want to let you know I am sorry to hear of the passing of Elizabeth but I know she is in a better place and in God's arms and in no more pain.
I found out about Elizabeth through a friend of mine and my family has been praying for her. God has got another angel in heaven.
Prayers and Love,
