“ Elwyn was a great friend of the Fogle Family for over 45 years. My parents loved playing dominoes with him and his wife. He will be truly missed but our family, but my parents along with God will be so happy to see him. They can play dominoes again. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Stone family. We have to remember what a wonderful place he is in now. Love to all the family (Judy Fogle Rotolo and family)

“ Wilma and family. First, my condolences to you all in the home going of Elwyn. It will certainly be an adjustment period in your life and you can be sure my thoughts and prayers are with you. Secondly, just to want to recall such fond and pleasant memories I have of being with Elwyn on so many occasions during our young lives - at church, visiting on Sunday afternoons, going fishing in the summer time, going to school together, then finally being the best man at your wedding. These memories I cherish. We have the blessed hope of seeing him and all our other friends and relatives again. Wallace Shuttlesworth

“ Wilma and Family,
We are so sad to hear of Elwyn's passing. God bless and comfort all of you in your grief. Always so comforting to know when our loved one has passed into the arms of Jesus and will never have suffering again. Yet, the hole they leave in our lives isn't easy to bear.
Our love and prayers.
