“ Emily, Earl and I went to Jacksonville Beach in 1948 the 4th of July weekend. We were in the ocean and Emily was holding my hand because I couldn't swim. A strong undertow knocked me down and Emily pulled me up. If she had not been holding on to me I probably would have drowned. I have never forgotten that. Loved her like a sister.

“ It is so sad to lose Emily here on earth but so wonderful to know she has gone to her heavenly home and be with Earl, Grandma and Papa and Mama and the rest of our family members. She was truly blessed to have such a long and beautiful life here. Sharon, I love the picture with the alpaca (or whatever it is, haha). Love to all of y'all ❤️
