“ Dorsey and family,

I was very much saddened to hear of Emily's death. She was a wonderful woman and my memories of her go back many years. She and I used to drive Mae Frachiseur Hamilton to Lanne Bryant in Atlanta to do some shopping. Emily would always laugh and tell me, "I never have to worry about conversation when I go with Mae!"

I have not seen her much in recent years but remember her with fondness and thank God for the life she lived. May the Lord comfort and encourage each of you. You are definitely in my prayers.

Love and Merry Christmas as Christ is our eternal hope!
