“ With stitching needles and yarn, and a smile on her face, Emily left a lasting impression on my heart. Whether it was working on files or sharing recipes she gave of herself to others with grace. It was a pleasure to work with her for 5 years at FCB and then to be in touch with her over the years since. I loved hearing of the trips past and the joy in her voice on the trips to come. I know she loved her Lord and is rejoicing on this, her ultimate journey. We will miss you greatly and look forward with anticipation at seeing you again! My heart and prayers are with you for comfort Ed and family as you grieve this loss. Thank you for sharing your dear Emily with us along the way.##imported-begin##Valerie Williams##imported-end##

“ I worked with Emily at First Capital Bank for several years. She was a kind and gentle spirit who genuinely cared for others. When I had my son, 9 years ago, she hand stitched him a blanket that we all adore. She even came to see us in the hospital. I thank God that Emily was a part of my life. I thank Him and Emily for her genuineness and her caring heart. May God comfort her family during this time.##imported-begin##Christy Joiner##imported-end##

“ It was with deep sorrow that I learned of Emily's passing. Emily was one of the sweetest, loveliest and caring people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. Every time you met Emily she always had a smile on her face. She will certainly be missed by members of Tiny Stitches and especially the Gwinnett Workshop. Emily was a beautiful person and I was privileged to be her friend.

My prayers go out to you and your family and pray that time will ease your pain.

God Bless!##imported-begin##Ida Boyce - Tiny Stitches Volunteer##imported-end##
