

Essie Mae Dixon

November 17, 1925 - April 26, 2017

Essie Dixon was born on November 17, 1925 in Laurel, Mississippi. She often had a spark of joy in her eyes when she spoke about her hometown. Essie was united in marriage to Jessie Dixon, Jr. on September 26, 1946. Together they went on to establish a life in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and raise 8 children. Essie carried titles such as wife, daughter, mother, and grandma, but she was affectionately known to all of us as "mama". She never left a family member without a home to call their own or without nice, hot meals to put in their bellies. Even at her weakest, she didn't want to be a burden to anyone - although she never was a burden. Her famous words were, "I'm OK Baby". She put everyone's needs before her own. Along with this unselfish love she had for people was her love for God. Essie dedicated her life to Jehovah at the age of 85. She was a avid reader of the bible and loved sharing what she learned. Essie moved to Georgia in 2008 and became a true Southern Belle. She enjoyed the warm, sunny weather, crocheting, tending to her nails, and gardening. Essie Dixon fell asleep in death on Wednesday, April 26th, 2017. At the age of 91 years, 5 months, and 9 days. Essie was preceded in death by her husband, Jessie, of 43 years. She was also preceded in death by three children: Charlotte "Ann" Shaw, Eddie Dixon, and Jerry Dixon. Essie is survived by five children: Harris Dixon, Sr. (Beth), Michael "Mack" Dixon (Angie), Sadie Auzla (Onkar), Edith Flinn, and Felix Dixon. Along with her children, she is survived by a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great, great grandchildren. "Mama" will be deeply missed, but she is resting peacefully and free of pain and suffering.
