“ Thinking of Ester brings a smile to my face and heart. She was good friends of my Aunt (Pat Woodard). When I moved into my first house Ester and Aunt Pat put my kitchen together,I can still hear them laughing and saying "put it there she not going to use it anyway" I am happy the two are together laughing in the heavens..##imported-begin##Jamie Alexander##imported-end##

“ Hello, Verra Lynn,

I'm not sure you remembe me but I worked w/Esther and visited her quite frequently in Indy before you moved her to your home. I've wondered about her often in the past. I'm so sorry for your loss-- what wonderful people you and Brad are for taking care of her. Esther was one of the special people in my life and I won't forget her. My condolences to all of you.

Sincerely,

Twyla Cecil (AMAX friend)##imported-begin##Twyla Cecil (formerly Slongo)##imported-end##
