“ Wanda, my prayers are you and your family at this time of grief. We have talked about our parents so much over these many years that I feel like I know your Mom and Dad.

Take joy in all of your memories.

“ My favorite memory of Gene was the day I had a new roof put on my home. I live across the street from them and he sat in his garage all day long and watched the roofers. Little did I know that was one of his favorite things. Jeanette was so grateful for the entertainment she brought the roofers some of her wonderful baked goodies. She later baked me a pound cake to thank me for getting a new roof for Gene to enjoy. This sums up this special couple, this special man. I was blessed last night to hear a prayer describing them as peanut butter and jelly...a love story for the ages. It is said that if your presence means nothing then neither will your absence. I will always remember Gene with a smile on my face and a warmth in my heart. Until we meet again....Patti Wolfe

“ Jeanette, Haywood and I cherish our times together with you and Gene at Glenwood and seeing you later at our church, First Baptist. Gene was always so glad to see us and had such a smile. We will not be at the service tomorrow because of a conflict but know please that you are in our prayers and will continue to pray for you in the coming days. Our love to you, Haywood and Jo Ann Owens.
