“ *As a child I remember visiting aunt Genie and uncle Buck. She would put me on her knee and make me tell her what I had been up to. I loved her very much.
I feel really bad that I didn't see her over the past several years. But, I never stopped loving her or thinking about her.*

Rest now Genie.

*Love,
Missy*

“ My memories of Genie include her concern for others and her smile and laughter. I remember her standing in the kitchen at my house washing dishes when my Dad passed away. I remember Sunday lunches at the Green house where Genie always helped Ms. Kate feed all who came. Genie was a genuine, caring and kind soul and will be missed.
