“ Aunt Evelyn was a kind, gentle, thoughtful person who complimented our Uncle Garnett so well. They married fairly late in life, and God gave them many happy years.

Lots of good times and good memories. We remember fondly the times they visited us, family reunions, the night we spent with them, the meals at Piccadilly, riding over the countryside for several hours one day, touring their church facilities, sensing their joy and excitement over the work God called them to do, and their faithfulness to Christ.

God brought them together and made them a team as well as a family. They loved Him and each other. It was a joy to see.
