“ Thank You Mom for doing your best at keeping six kids entertained, I always had a blast, whether it was playing in the dark, making popcorn balls, or fishing with cane poles, they are memories that I will cherish forever. Thank you for always being there for us. You were the best mom in the world. I love you Mom and I miss you so much. I can't wait to see you again one day. Your son, Bill

Your mom must have been somethin' else. Six kids holy cow! Even in the throes of her illness, I saw glimpses of the woman your mom must have been...mischievous, funny, with a wicked sense of humor. I wish I knew her then. But it was a pleasure to take care of her in the not so distant past. I'm so sorry for you and your family, Bill. Take comfort in the knowledge you will see, and laugh with, your precious mom again!
