“ My husband Tommy worked for Lamar and Martha for many years and we became close friends. Had many good times at Christmas parties and Tommy would always come home from work telling a funny story. Lamar taught Tommy work ethics that followed him for life and Tommy and I both thought the would have him. My heart breaks for you all💔

We loved Tommy. He was a dependable, honest, hard working man. Men like him are hard to find. Some people come into and out of your life like ships passing in the night. Others become lifelong friends... Tommy told me how to know if a girl was the one to make your wife- He said you have to ask yourself - can you live without her? If not, she is the one. Thats the question he asked himself when he met you. This is not goodbye... this is SEE YOU LATER! Tommy and Daddy are together catching up on things right now. We will be with them before too long.

Time flies. When Lanier, Bucky and Dad were partners it was was one of the best times of his life. There are moments when you think the hard times are behind you. Then there are days like yesterday and you think - I was wrong - again. Sincerely honored comforted by your presence yesterday.

“ So sorry for your loss. Lamar meant a great deal to many people. He went out of his way to attend a church fellowship and even made trips as far as SC to visit with church family. He was a blessing to all of us.
