“ I just learned earlier this week that Felica was sick and I am sorry to learn of her passing. I had lost touch in recent years, but about a decade ago, we had reconnected years after high school. She was truly such a wonderful person and a good friend. She offered such wonderful, godly advice to me. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ To the family of Felica what a precious person. We remember her working with the children at Lawrenceville Church of God in a big bus. Our deepest sympathy is with you and your family. May the memories that were shared, and the love that was given be a comfort to you in days to come. May the Lord wrap His arms around you and give you peace.

[2Timothy 4:7-8 KJV] 7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished [my] course, I have kept the faith: 8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

*[Isaiah 57:1-2 NIV] 1 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. 2 Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.

“ I went to college with Felica, and then moved to the Atlanta area. Her family welcomed me with open arms, and she was a source of strength and support for all who knew her. Her faith, humor, and talents made so much difference in people's lives.

I will remember her every time I knit, volunteer, or simply see a person treating another with kindness. My sympathies to her family and friends.

“ Felicia taught me to knit when I was in middle school, this grew into a long term love and passion for all kinds of fiber art and an incredible creative outlet for me as an adult. She was always kind and upbeat and always there to help anyone and everyone. More than anything, she loves her son and her love for him shone in everything she did and said. Sending all of my love and condolences to those who love her, especially her son and husband.

“ I met Felicia through her sweet sister, Jenny. Felicia had been looking to buy a toy poodle and Jenny told her we had a litter. Fast forward: in October 2010, Felicia got a tiny little black female puppy from us. Fast forward even more and she told me about a Christmas ministry from her church that needed gifts for children. I got my office involved: we got clothes, toys, baby dolls, stuffed animals, bikes, etc. Felicia was a light for those children in need -- but she was a light for those of us who helped gather the gifts. Thank you, Felicia, for showing others Jesus' love. She is now with Him.
I'm sorry I never met Brent or their son. Much love to you, Jenny, Cookie, Danielle, and Rachel.

“ Felicia was the kindest person you could ever have met. Sweet sweet soul. And smart - I always thought she was the smartest kid in school. She was so happy being married and Haesten hung the moon. To her family, my your pain and sorrow somehow find light, glory, and peace as she is with Jesus. Prayers for you all. God Bless! ”
