“ My family moved to Primrose st. in June 1952. I spent many hours with Flora. Her Father was a chef and I are many times with her family. I didn't know what I was eating part of the time but learned to appreciate the culture.

She was so much fun to be with. We played school, doctor, family, etc. God Bless

“ I was saddened to learn that Flora had passed. I remember Flora from high school as a friendly and outgoing classmate. It was great to reconnect with Flora at recent high school reunions. She was so proud of her children and especially her grandchildren. Flora gushed proudly when speaking of her grandchildren's accomplishments. I know that Flora will be greatly missed. My condolences and prayers are extended to the family. Edward Knight, Hoke Smith High School, Class of 1960.
