“ I am very sad to learn the passing of Marie! I remember her well from Boy Scouts Troop 533 along with her husband Ed Fraley, my scoutmaster at that time. She helped Ed with recordkeeping and was always the sweetest lady. She was always smiling and upbeat.

I recently saw a picture of me from around that time, and it is hard to believe that it has been so long ago. There are so many memories from Boy Scouts that I hold dearly. I am reminded that the people who have brought those experiences and made those moments possible are growing older. I will forever be thankful of Marie and Ed's dedication to Scouts.

Rest In Peace, Marie!

“ Marie was a beautiful sweet person who loved life . She was always kind hearted and had a smile on her face. My son and I enjoyed going out to dinners with her and Ed and spending time at Boy Scouts with her through out the years . She will be missed but I know we will see her again one day . Rest in peace sweet angel !
