“ I was so sad this morning to hear of this tragic accident. Jess my prayers go out to you and your girls. I am so glad we had a chance to talk last summer at the reunion. You and Flo always looked so happy just like your wedding day. Words can not express my deepest sympathy. Please let me know if there is anything I can do. May God give you and your family the comfort and strength you all need to get through this time together. Remember this place is our temporary "home" we will all be together again one day in our Heavenly home. God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Ann Marie Grimes##imported-end##

“ Jess, Brandee and Alyssa--my heart is breaking for you--I cannot imagine the pain you must feel. I hope you know how much Flo was loved by everyone she met--she could always make me smile--I loved her sarcastic humor. She had such a big heart which she tried to hide--I think she liked it when someone called her intimidatiing--but she would always ask why they thought that. I am so glad to have shared not only a work relationship with her but a close friendship as well. I know how much she loved her family--You were her life!! Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Remember that you will see her again when we all meet together in Heaven with our heavenly Father. Wishiing you comfort and peace. “ I know at this time there is nothing that myself or anyone can say that can ease the pain of your loss. Flo was such a caring and warm hearted woman that had a special way of making anyone around her feel welcomed and loved. She is going to be deeply missed until we meet again in the loving presence of our Heavenly Father. Until that day arrives we have so many special memories to hold close to our heart. I pray our Lord will hold you close and surround you with his everlasting love and ease the pain you are feeling at this time.
