“ We met at the Miracles Hair Salon a few years ago. Our appointments were on the same day each week, Thursday mornings. We only knew each other at the shop, but we seemed to click well. She seemed quite determined to keep going as much as possible as long as she could. I really admired her, and always wanted to help her in some way. Maybe I did. I know she helped me by being glad to see me each week. She will be missed by many. May God comfort her family and friends. Shirley Deriso.
