“ I remember when I first met the best neighbor ever - 30 years ago. This wonderful lady came to my door and introduced herself to me when we first moved in; she always welcomed you with a smile; I never heard her really complain. I know she is in Heaven smiling down on us all - in peace. She was like a second 'mom' to me - I could always count on her - no matter what. With love to all her family and friends please know she will be missed by so many. Always in our thoughts and prayers - Katy and Herman Stephens and Mary Massey
