“ Frances and Russ were the first people to welcome and befriend us when we first visited Avondale-Pattillo UMC in 1981. Their kindness and good humor went a long way in helping us feel that we had found our church home. Frances was always a positive, smiling presence even though she was dealing with health issues even then. Although we haven't been in touch in a long time, we remember you fondly and send our sincere sympathy to your family in the loss of this lovely and loving woman.
