“ I will always remember the good times we had at your house in Grayson where we both grew up. Your Mom and Dad were fine people. Ypu married our old school mate and had a wonderful life. Now it is time to enjoy another kind of wonderful life with your Heavenly Father and members of your family that have gone on Home. Bless your family as they go through this period of missing you. See you someday, my friend.

“ I loved Ms Thomas. She would always tell me to call her Frances. We exchanged Christmas cards over the years and others which she would send me a thank you card for. She was a beautiful Christian woman inside and out. She will be truely missed. RIP Frances.
