“ I went to Dacula High School with Buster. We also graduated the same year. I worked with Francis in Records at Gwinnett County PD for a long time. I loved Francis very much. She was very comforting to me when I lost my parent. She was so much like a mother to me. I know she will be a great lost to us all and she will be missed very, very, much. My prayers go out to the whole family. "Shirley"##imported-begin##Shirley K. Hood-Rodriguez##imported-end##

“ Frances was a jewel and a treasure. She always thought of other people before herself. She carried deeply for the down and out and we have lost one of our best. Heaven is better today. I believe that Jesus will be showing off Francis to everyone in heaven for sometime to come. I am proud to be her cousin. ##imported-begin##mike everett##imported-end##
