“ Many years ago, Frank and Maureen welcomed me into their home after a devastating life event I experienced as a young man had sent my world into turmoil. I will never forget and will always appreciate their love and compassion along with their daughter Kerri and the Farina family. I just learned of Frank's passing and am so saddened. I send love, prayers, and peace to this wonderful family.

As the anniversary of Frank's passing approaches, I was reviewing his tribute wall and came across your kind words. It's comforting to know that Frank lives on in the memories of those whose lives he touched. Thank you!

“ Only learned of this today...Frank was my boss at Pergament about 100 years ago. :) More importantly Frank and Maureen were there for my family when we lost our dad...Franks support to my brother during that time has never been forgotten. Hugs and prayers to the Farina family. Pam Malatestinic (Martin)

Thank you, Pam. Although the void left by Frank's passing can never be filled, knowing that his memory lives on is appreciated. Your family will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ Words cannot describe the sadness of Frank not being here with us any longer. After 48 years of friendship of all the laughter we shared and all of us growing up together this picture was from Valentines Day this year when we all enjoyed jet skiing, the beautiful beach in Delray and pontooning down alligator alley. It's difficult to imagine Maureen without Frank they were s couple to admire and September 17 would have been 45 years. Frank was diagnosed on June 6 his 65th birthday. I was blessed to have visited him twice since his diagnosis and spent quality time of laughing and reminiscing. I wasn't able to make it to the services but I am there in spirit and have been playing all the music he downloaded for us to enjoy. Frank always loved his music sometimes Maureen and I wanted to choke him! The three of us always had a way of turning everything to laughter and when ever I think of Frank I will smile and think of his journey as a "Happy Ending". I wanted to dedicate this song to Frank "Tears in Heaven "
