“ Mrs. Lentini, Tony, Sophia, and family, Please accept my most sincere sympathy on the loss of your husband, father, and grandfather. I want to tell you how much I thoroughly enjoyed having Frank as my barber for several years. We shared a tremendous respect and appreciation for our Italian heritage and always spoke of the traditions, foods, and customs we had in common. I especially liked to share the little sayings in Italian that could express something a little differently than English could. I enjoyed sharing my garden vegetables with him and seeing him smile when I gave him a bag of pomodori, melanzane, and peppers. I will certainly miss my visits with Frank. Barbers can be replaced--a wonderful man and friend cannot. I will always remember Frank fondly. Mille Grazie, Frank.##imported-begin##Herman Donatelli, DMD##imported-end##

“ I just learned that Frank had passed away when I went by his shop today.. I am so sorry for your loss. Frank was a great barber and a terrific man. I always enjoyed it when my son, Brian, and I needed a haircut. We would spend a few hours waiting and talking to him, and his other customers. He always enjoyed the discussion, and always had a story and an opinion.
I used to stop by just to chat with him a couple of minutes, even when I didn't need a haircut.
My son, Brian is Autistic, and is sometimes not understood by people. Frank was always so patient and kind to him. He genuinely liked Brian, and Brian really liked Frank.
Frank loved to talk about his family. He was so proud of you all.
He will be greatly missed.
May God comfort and Bless each of you.##imported-begin##Jim Capps##imported-end##

“ Frank always made every trip to the barber shop seem like a visit with family. He greeted us all by name and with a smile that let us know he was genuinely glad to see us. Over the 25+ years, we discussed current events (Frank had an opinion on most topics that he'd always freely share) and our children's activities. Beyond enjoying his wit, wisdom, and sense of humor, a trip to his shop was fun to see the “other” merchandise available (from car tires, to furniture, to school desks). Frank dearly loved his family, his many friends, and his work. It has truly been a blessing to know him as friend. He made the world a better place. I miss him.##imported-begin##Bob Mischuck##imported-end##

“ Flo and Family: I am so sorry for your loss. Frank was an extraordinary person. His smile and pleasant personality will certainly be missed. He made himself a part of not only my life, but my sons, Eddie, Justin and Brandon as well, with his jokes and laughter and memories from the Barber Shop. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. “ Flora, Tony, Sophia and family. May our sympathy and prayers comfort you on the loss of your husband and father. He was longtime friend. As you know, we were born in Auburn 3 days apart, friends all our life. Attended school together, and went into the Air Force on the same date. I will always have in my memory talking to him from the hospital shortly before his death. May God bless you all.##imported-begin##Mike, Joan and family##imported-end##

“ Frank was a friend and my family barber for over 10 years. His cheeful good humor and firiendly advice helped me through many tough times. His shop was as much a meeting place to spend time socilaizing as well as the most skilled and professional barber I have ever known. Frank told everyone he would never retire, and I thought of his words as I broke into tears upon reading of his passing.

I am the retired Marine and ex Georgia Tech student he may have spoken of. I gave him the chair he used to cut his grandson's hair in at home. He also insisted that I retell the story of my downtown Atlanta "fishing" experiences to any who had not heard of them.
