“ I met Mr. Still at the Monroe Home Depot. He was in need of assistance regarding a prior purchase. He was so kind and appreciative. Anytime Mr. Still came back to Home Depot, he asked to see me. He would tell anyone around how helpful I had been. Mr. Still said if I ever needed help to let him know. I really enjoyed his visits. I remarked to a co-worker last week how I hadn't seen Mr. Still in quite a while. I am truly sorry for your loss but believe Mr. Still has found eternal peace. Sincerely, Rozzie Booker

“ Franklin, Thomas, Mary Jane & Marie Jean & Family, Wanted to extend our deepest and most sincere sympathies to you and your families during this time. I just found out about your dad and was so sad to hear of his passing.
I think back on all the wonderful times our families shared at both our farm house in Loganville and your house in Grayson. What great memories! We were some tough kids and had some fun times which often led us to a whipping but somehow it always seemed worth it. Bless all our parents hearts.
At times of great loss, God brings us great peace, love and mercy.
May your faith in him bring each of you peace and comfort in the days ahead. Please know we are lifting you & your families up in our thoughts and prayers and know your friendship will always remain special to our family.
Sincere sympathies,
Kathy Wages Hinton , Bo & Clint & Ed Wages
