“ When we met Fred he was in his 80's still going strong. With a sense of humor. He loved his family almost as much as his Harley. I would say a life well spent. We will miss you and we love you.

“ My condolences to all of the Georgia Roy cousins. Uncle Freddy was my godfather. My earliest memories of him are of riding on his motorcycle. He was a wild and competitive croquet player. His method of play would be called extreme croquet nowadays and involved chasing other players down the bank and into the woods. He had a great love of life and laughter and I'm grateful to have known him.
