“ Thanks for all the laughs Al, you always were a good friend to me, I remember the first Christmas you told me what you were giving me to celebrate the Season ... a bucket of "fertilizer" and you wanted your bucket back ... Promises. Promises.
I also remember when you bought me my first dozen raw oysters, that is definitely a significant event.
My thoughts are with those you loved and who love you.
You will always be in my thoughts, especially during the Season of Giving.##imported-begin## Ken Lawrence##imported-end##

“ The world is a better place because of friends like Al and Wanda. Al lives on through the many memories he made with the people he met. There are no better times to be had than those with the Corvette Club in Bowling Green. Rest in peace Al.##imported-begin##Richard and Fran Corwin##imported-end##
