“ I have fond memories of Gary and I playing at Nana’s home. One day, our family visited Gary’s family in Monroe. We walked downtown. We walked up to perfect strangers and told them we would sing a song for them for a dime. We walked back to Gary’s home with change in our pockets. We were brave, little entrepreneurs.

Gary was a godly, faithful man. He loved Joyce and his family dearly. Also, he loved and served his Lord Jesus Christ. Well done, faithful servant. Well done!

“ Gary was a scrappy little kid who grew into the finest young man I have ever known He was a beloved husband and father who took much pride in raising his three adored children. May God hold Joyce and his precious family close in these hours of grief and give comfort and peace for the days ahead.
