“ Clare,

Just today I found Gary's obituary. You and Gary were always so kind and loving to me and Rita. We always appreciated your friendships and fellowship. We live outside Williamsburg, Va near our son and his family. He pastors a church. The word does not return void.

Love,

“ Saddened to hear of Gary's passing today. I was honored to be his friend and made a better man by his example, his words, his kindness over the years. He was a remarkable man. Prayers for Clare and the family.

“ I meet Gary and Clare back in 1976 That year I had a long period of unemployment. Someone had given Gary $50.00 to give to someone who needed it and Gary gave it to me. I was so thankful for him doing that for me. Gary also to. ok the wedding pictures at my wife and my wedding. Just the kind of person he was always giving.

“ I met Gary and Clare when I was 18 years old. They have been a staple in my life both spiritually and emotionally ever since. Through marriages, children and all the other events life has to offer, Gary and Clare have been there for me...encouraging, supporting, loving and teaching. Gary is a friend, brother, mentor and forever in my heart.

“ My earliest memory of Gary is about 40 years ago as the loving husband of Clare. The example of a standing and sound believer of and for God. I'm thankful to have these happy memories. I'm confident he gave many others similar memories. More so, I am thankful I will see him again when Christ comes back. What a glorious day!

“ *Corbin and I first met Gary and Clare in Delaware OH in 1977. He was a loving, caring and thoughtful person who always wanted to see the best for a person and see them grow in their love for God and His Word. One time he got in our face in our 2nd year of marriage because of his love and wanting the best for us to walk according to God's Word to be an example. Because of his love and big heart for God, we are continuing to walk according to God's Word even today ... 41 years plus later. I will never forget Gary and his big smile. Today we are sad that Gary is now gone, but in due time we shall see him again at the Gathering Today and rejoice together. (1 Thess 4:18) Much love, hugs and prayers to Clare and the family.
