“ When I think about Uncle Gary I remember all the fun, happy times our families have spent together over the years. Vacations at timeshares and visits to our home and yours, Christmas gatherings , and special occasions, & table games. These make up a multitude of great memories with much laughter. His love for life, and his friends and family was evident. He will be missed. God be near family and friends who are experiencing this loss.##imported-begin##Marcia Ledyard##imported-end##
