“ Charles and Family:

Our sympathy to you in the passing of Gaynelle. It has been many years since we lived across the street on Larry Lane from you. Those were good and happy years with memories that last forever. May God give you strength as you face this hour of sadness.

“ HARRY CALLED LAST NIGHT TO LET US KNOW OF GAYNELLES PASSING. I KNOW SHE WILL BE MISSED, TIME WILL HEAL THE PAIN, BUT SHE WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN. WE KNOW SHE IS AT A MUCH BETTER PLACE. WE LOST OUR DAUGHTER AT 34 TO CANCER. I PERSONALLY KNOW JESUS ACCEPTED HER AS SOON AS SHE PASSED AWAY. MIKE AND JEAN TREADAWAY##imported-begin##MIKE TREADAWAY##imported-end##

“ I sure will miss Gaynelle, I look back over the years and think just how long we have all been together in life. And I know first hand how you all are feeling this day after my loss of my dad December 6th, 2011. My heart felt thoughts gose out to the whole family. With Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##Susan Hamby##imported-end##

“ I will truly miss Mama Gaynelle. She gave me encouragement and love over the years. She never got too mad at me and Alison for the mischief we got into except for the squirrel mishap. She got over that pretty quickly when she got new floors.

My heart goes out to everyone in the family. I love you all and I will be praying for you.##imported-begin##Linda Besaw##imported-end##
