“ Elder George Cooke was a faithful member of Christian Fellowship SDA Church in Brooklyn, NY for decades and served as first elder for many years at said church, as well. A native of Jamaica West Indies, Elder Cooke lived in England before relocating to New York City. Elder Cooke was viewed as a father figure to many at Christian Fellowship, and he provided premium quality elder leadership during his tenure. Christian Fellowship SDA Church flourished under Elder Cooke's pulpit elder leadership. His late wife, Sis. Beryl Cooke passed away approximately 7 years later, in 2019. He leaves to mourn his daughters: Lorna and Consie, and a granddaughter, Naomi. He has another daughter whose name I cannot recall, currently. We hold firm to the "Blessed Hope" of the New Testament. Such readsand the dead in Christ shall rise first.....
