“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Eddie was a great cousin and will be missed greatly. I know Heaven's gates swung open wide as Jesus welcomed him home.....standing there to greet him was his Momma, Daddy, aunts/uncles/grandparents/cousins and friends. May you rest now my sweet cousin. I will see you again oneday, tell Momma and Daddy hello for me and I love and miss them too.

“ Well I still can't believe that he is gone. Caring, loving, giving person, never thought about himself but always of others. An amazing person! Eddie thank you for all the bowling memories, you will always be in my heart! To his family my thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ Eddie has been a constant in my life since I bought my house 14 years ago. Peeking out the window as we drove slowly by the house for sale while we scoped out the neighborhood. Opening the back door to yell "c'mere Snake!" every night. Cutting up the tree that fell on the cars while we were on vacation and getting everything dragged to the curb. Mowing my lawn to be nice, i.e, when he thought I'd waited too long. Slowly, the tables turned a bit and it was my turn to give back. Taking over food. Helping him around the house. Keeping the yard mowed. This man, who could have easily made comments or scoffed at two women buying the house next door, was never critical or condescending. He was remarkable in his acceptance and easy-goingness.

My habit was always to peer over at Eddie sitting in his den in the evenings to make sure he was ok. I don't know how long I'll keep doing that, but it will be a while.

Eddie taught me what it means to be a neighbor. It's more than just the person who takes up space in the house next door. I will miss him.

“ Still hard to accept the fact we no longer have Eddie in our lives. He was a very caring man and would do anything in the world for you...even if he didn't know you. Just a very generous person. He leaves a big void in our lives. Rest in peace Eddie. Oh how I will miss you. Barb O'Connor
