“ Cousin George, you will be greatly missed and our deepest sympathy to your family!

I will always remember fondly the time George spent living with our Hudson family in Tucker, GA in the 1980s...especially remembering the Fall trips to Cherokee and boiled peanuts and bushels of apples and Aunt Rita getting George to dress up as a skeleton or hunchback for Halloween to scare the neighborhood kids. Thanks for being such a great older cousin to us, George! With our love and sympathy, your cousins, Christine, Alisa, and Steven Hudson
