“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dad. Our families were brought together because our dads were in the Navy together, and they both loved music. I will always cherish the memories of our dads "making music" on the front porch of our house in Hillsboro when we were growing up. In my mind, I can see your dad sitting at the steel guitar, and my dad playing the fiddle. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Love y'all.

“ John-Mark and Family, we have been so blessed to watch your postings on FB about your dad. You have been in our prayers and will continue to be in the days ahead. You know we love you and so thankful that you were blessed with such a wonderful dad. We loved him though we had never met him because of you! Embree and Sue
