“ I do not beleive I have ever know a kinder soul. He was always glad to see ya and hated to see ya go. You answer the phone; "This is Cecil; and you knew a family meeting was in the works. And some things do not change. I know that tomorrow he will be at the family meeting and we will be better having experienced his presence when we are gathered in love and celebration of his life ant the joy it has brought us. We love you Vautie, Wayne, Patti, Paula and Gena. Our prayers are with you, Talk to your Dad everyday and will soon find he is never far away; ready to take your hand and bring you comfort. Our light burns brighter because of Cecil. we love you still.##imported-begin##Sharon and Ken Cloud##imported-end##

“ To all the family our deepest sympathy. Although we never met him it almost seemed we did through the stories Tammy would tell us of her amazing love for him and he her. He was a very handsome man, he looked like the perfect Grandpa, no artist could do better. As I say I never met him on earth, but someday in heaven I will be proud to shake his hand.##imported-begin##Johnnio & Danar##imported-end##
