“ Very sad news to learn of Ronnie's passing. While I haven't seen him since high school, his memory is vivid. He was 3 or 4 years older than I, but we both grew up on Main St. in Shinnston. A terrific time and place to grow up. Ronnie was always cheerful, fun-loving to the point of mischievousness at times, and at the center of a good time.. Always a smile. I suspect he was like his mother, always finding a way to help someone who needed it. She was very special.

Our condolences to the family at this time.

“ So sorry to hear about Ronnie. Our prayers are with you, Bonnie, and your families and extended families.

You had been on my mind for a while now. I went on line to see if you still live in Ga.

Please know that our thoughts are with you. North Carolina is where we live and would love to see you sometime.##imported-begin##Eleanor (McGinnis) and Harlan (Butch) Janes##imported-end##
