“ I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. Dealing with the death of someone you loved is never easy, but God's Word the Bible can give us hope and comfort. Imagine where you can look forward to a time where you will no longer feel the sting and pain of death. The Bible speaks of this at 1 Corinthians 15:55:

“Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”

We all look forward to the day when we will be able to say this in a joyous voice. For more information, please visit jw.org.##imported-begin##CA##imported-end##
