“ Mrs. Joanna and Debbie, please know that I am praying so much for your comfort now and in the days ahead. Jerry was one of my best friends and I have too many memories to mention...but please know I will always cherish our friendship and I will miss him so much. His Schley County friends and classmates loved him. God bless and may He keep his loving arms around you!

“ I remember when we went fishing and the game warden asked Jerry for his license and he told the warden he didn't have a license and the warden was going to give him a ticket. Luckily he had his learners license and my daddy walked up. The warden never asked me for mine and I had one Jerry was big boned for his age I could write a book about our adventures Joey Miller
