“ Uncle Duard,

What wonderful memories I have of you and your Warm SMILE and Gentle manner speaking to me and others. I knew you best through the comments my Grandmother, your Mother and my Dad, your brother made of your life accomplishments. I know they LOVED your dearly and now you are being greeting by you Savior - Jesus Christ along with your Father and Mother and other dearly loved ones. I ask that oneday when it is time to leave this extistence on Earth, that you once agiain make a Warm and Smiling comment to GOD about souls like mine to join the MY SCOTT Family in Heaven! You have no more pain nor suffering, we rejiocce in knowing this.... My Love, Nephew... David R. Scott##imported-begin##David R Scott##imported-end##

“ Aunt Beverly, Gary and Debbie, I am so thankful to have known uncle Durad. From the time I was a child, I always looked up to him. A wonderful husband and father, he was a great example of what a Christian man should be. I know God has a special place for him in heaven and we will all be together there with him when our time comes to go.
