AN

“ I remember Gerri as a kind and loving, and giving lady. Several years ago now, she hosted a quilting lesson at her home and a few friends learned about cathedral windows quilts. Gerri started hers but I don't know whether she finished it or not. She was so sweet to share produce from Mr. Frank's garden. She regarded her friends highly. She was fortunate to have a loving relationship with Elvin in the years after Frank passed on. She loved God and served Him faithfully. She will be missed but I rejoice greatly for her.
