“ Rusty, I am praying for you and your girls. One of the best memories of my ministry is when you allowed this “northern boy” to share your pulpit. I can still see Ginger’s smile as she was so welcoming, encouraging, and gracious to me. I will always be grateful for the time when God brought us together. I pray that you experience the love, the comfort, and the peace of our Father.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing. Ginger was a sweet smart person. She loved her family. She went out of her way to help people with their music. She was close to my family, especially Michael and Barry Sikes. I will pray for your family. I know you have wonderful memories.

“ Ash:
Ginger was a sweet, beautiful soul. I never got the opportunity to meet her in person, but the kind words she shared with me, and the acceptance of me into her beautiful family, were one of the many ways she showed her Christ-like love.

Dan:

Ginger has always loved and cared and I never saw her in any other way. She truly was a wonderful person and I know she is happy to be walking with our heavenly Father. The last sweet words she shared with Ashley were as follows: “I love you already without meeting you. You and Daniel have such a sweet relationship. You guys are showing people what a godly marriage is. I am so proud of you and happy for you!”

These words are a perfect example of how we knew her to love as much as she could.

“Ginger was truly a beautiful soul. She was a friend to me and a role model in my awkward teenage years. She had a great sense of humor, too. I will never forget her kindness. Love and prayers for Rusty and their girls.

The first time I met Ginger she was 4 months old and I had just married into the Cown family, which she was adopted into along with Joyce and Bill. She had on a pink outfit, the fattest little legs and that smile that you see in the picture. This is such a loss for me and from all the comments, so many, many more 💕
