“ i don't know where to start, i spent a lot of time crying and remembering memories today.
i wish i would have read this yesterday, i would have tried to get down.

your dad was very special to me, he always treated me so nicely.
i was impressed with how gentle he was with you, your mom, and your sister.
i loved hanging out with you at your house because i could see how a dad was suppose to be.
i hated being at my house, being abused by my dad.

i'll never forget the first time i met your dad, you guys came to pick me up.
i didn't know your dad was in a wheelchair and there he was driving!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
what did i know.

angie, thanks for sharing the great man that your dad was with me.
he is truly a strong man in Christ and lived his christianity for us to see.
when he started emailing me it reminded me of how special he was.
i loved getting on line and reading what he had to send.

please share my condolences with your mom and siblings.
sorry i can't get there.
i love your family and the time they gave me during my troubled times.
please know how special your family is to me.

“ Shannon and family,

We are deeply saddened by your loss. After a full and fulfilling life, your grandfather has been called home. Through the pain, we pray that you are able to focus on the joy that this man brought to your lives and the example of how to live. We'd love to hear stories whenever you are up for telling them.

“ Uncle Glen was a very special man. My heart is deeply saddened. When I told the girls the first thing they started talking about was all the rides he gave them. It is reassuring to know that is is in heaven and with our Lord. You all are in our prayers.
God Blessed
