“ Laurie and Glen’s family, please accept our condolences for the loss of Glen. The world is a better place because of friends like Glen. Glen lives on through the many memories he made with the people he met. He was always smiling and Happy person, He would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. Glen was more than an Employee for me, he was like a father I never had always giving me advice when needed, Glen will be truly missed by me and all of my employees. Laurie if you ever need anything we are just a call away. Rest in peace Glen.##imported-begin##Allen Chittum ##imported-end##

“ DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF GLEN EVANS.

Woke up this morning as the dust meets the dawn, Heard the news but we still can't believe that you're gone, You'll cross our mind and we'll miss you with every passing day, And words want bring you back to us no matter what we say, It seems like it was yesterday and you where still here, I guess its hard to see the truth when were looking through tears, So we set back close our eyes and start reminiscing, We can see your face but its your voice that were missing, Angels sing when you die and I know that's what you heard, And your soul can fly free as free as a bird, Another branch on our family tree that's dead and gone, Without you here in our life its kind of hard to move on, Life is complicated when we have to say our goodbye's, but I know we'll meet again one day somewhere on the other side.

He loved to tease people and I loved that about him, I could tease him right back. Missing him already!###imported-begin###Gale Britt###imported-end##
