“ *Glen was my student assistant at Palm Beach Community College, he was an exceptional student and committed to his work in the advising department. My wife and I continued our friendship with Glen when he was a student at the University of Florida. He applied and was accepted to several prestigious law school but wanted Georgetown. My wife and I were so impressed with Glens academic performance and commitment that we assisted with his finances to help him achieve his goals. He was at the top of his class and we were so proud to be asked to attend his graduation where we also got to meet his mom. Glen continued with that same level of hard work and commitment in the Air Force, meeting the challenges and always progressing. When he called to tell me of his diagnosis I was crushed. He accomplished so much and had such a bright future, it was hard to accept. Our condolences to Glens family, the Lord works in strange ways. We will always have Glen in our hearts. “ I am heartbroken to learn of the passing of Glen, as we all knew him on the dance floor at Salsa Mia back in Miami. He was one of my first teachers, and he was brilliant. Getting the privilege to dance with him was one of the many highlights. I have many vibrant memories of him. Not too many photos, though! We never stood still long enough to capture any! I can recall the night he told me he was leaving for JAG—so much excitement and happiness for him and sadness for us all left in Miami. He was a kind and generous human with an infectious smile. May he rest in peace.

“ I was blessed to know Glen within the Salsa dance community. I was so amazed and loved to watch Glenn dance so smooth and light and his expressions of joy when he danced. The quiet encouragement that he conveyed to me when I would misstep incorrectly and the high fives before moving onto the next dance partner. When we would have small chats, He always had a positive word and always a smile for everyone. Glen made an impact and will never be forgotten within the Atlanta salsa community. He will be missed. Cheers! Mate

“ Glen worked for me at his final assignment in the Air Force as an instructor at the JAG school. He was amazing at his job. He was approachable and knowledgeable. He was adored and respected by the students and the staff. He loved chess, salsa dancing and his mom. And not in that order. Glen was a remarkable man. And I am better for having known him.

“Glen is deeply missed by the present and former JAG School faculty who knew him. He was a brilliant yet humble man. One of my favorite memories is my first game of chess with Glen. Chess came up in one of our conversations and he said something to the effect of “oh you play?” When I answered yes, I meant I knew how to move the pieces and was decent for a layperson. What he didn’t share is that he was a genius at chess. The first time he crushed me, I knew without a shadow of a doubt that he had some extensive experience playing. I was able to pry it out of him that he used to play competitively. The chess matches picked up amongst some of the faculty and you could often walk by the break room and see some of us in heated matches. Did any of us ever beat Glen? Never. But he was gracious enough to try to teach us how to make smarter moves. For his going away gathering, we surprised him with a mini tournament, Queen’s Gambit style! He went around playing 6-7 of us simultaneously and crushed us all. Great memory with a great friend. Rest in heavenly peace, Glen! I want a rematch when I see you again. - Laura Wheat

“ Maj Minto was an excellent instructor and attorney. I am grateful and honored to have learned from him - both as a JAG school instructor and a salsa dancer. He held a salsa dance class for all of the students to enjoy, and it was a blast. He took his job very seriously, and we are all better for it. My deepest condolences to the family. -Jacy Fisher

“ To The Minto Family - I am deeply sorry for your immense loss. Glen and I served together in the Air Force as senior prosecutors. I was saddened and stunned to hear of his passing. When I went back and read our texts to one another and reminisced with other prosecutors we worked with who knew him, I was reminded of two things that really embodied Major Minto: first, his desire to always do the right thing; and second, his work ethic. His impact on those around him is everlasting. He not only fought tirelessly to obtain justice for victims in the courtroom, but he was dedicated to bettering those around him. Glen had a quiet confidence. He was serious about his job, devoted to excellence, and never afraid to fight the hard fights. I am better for having worked with, and call Glen my friend. Please know how invaluable his service was. He will be forever missed. His entire Air Force family is thinking of you all during this incredibly difficult time.

“ I knew Glen at a fellow Circuit Trial Counsel and as a course director at AFJAGS. We both evaluated students together in mock trials. He was kind, competent, and affable. I always enjoyed any time I got to spend with Glen, and I am deeply surprised and saddened to learn of his passing. He made the JAG Corps a better place to work; and I know his students were lucky to have him as their instructor. God bless Glen and his family—may all of you find peace during this difficult time.

“ Maj Minto was my CTC for one of my biggest cases as a first assignment JAG. He drove me nuts because he was so thorough and always wanted to go over the facts repeatedly. But I learned so much from him - how to be a good prosecutor, how to look at the facts without getting overly emotional (I'm still working on that one!) and how to appreciate that hard work pays off - even if the results don't go your way. Glen was an amazing humans being, a great lawyer, and a kind and decent officer. He will be greatly missed and I know he touched so many lives. Rest in peace Glen.
