He was a member of New Canaan Baptist Church in Lawrenceville, Ga.. Glenn retired from the United States Post office. He was one of the founding board members of the Dizzy Dean Baseball organization where he was a Gold Circle Club member. He enjoyed volunteering his time in local youth organizations and scouting. Glenn was an avid sportsman and traveled all over the United States hunting and fishing. When anyone mentioned traveling, he was the first in line. He never met a stranger. He had a way of finding something in common with everyone he met and was always ready to entertain people with one of his many stories. After retirement, he traveled to Europe several times. He also spent many hours potting plants at his home nursery. Many of the beautiful azaleas and rhododendron we enjoy in the Gwinnett areas came from his home nursery. Most important, Glenn loved his family. The family will receive friends Tuesday, November 29th from 4:00 pm until 9:00 pm at the funeral home and from noon until the time of the service on Wednesday. “ First, I want to express my condolences to the Fuller family. I met Glenn during the spring of 2004, and I am one of those people who became friends with Glenn in the context as it was written in his obituary that he never met a stranger. I remember calling Lynn when I was looking for Rhododendron, and that he invited me out to his nursery. As it turns out, I bought several truckloads of plants and trees from him. These plants and trees have prospered and grow quite large in my front yard, and I will always think of him as I look out and see them. I was proud to have become somewhat of a friend to Glenn, the crowning moment of which, is that he asked me during the summer of 2004 to take him over to Athens, to visit a number of commercial plant growers. I drove from Atlanta out to Lawrenceville, and picked up Glenn, and we drove over to Athens and visited several nurseries, and Packed my truck with dozens of new small plants for Glenn to nurture. We stopped along the way and had lunch, and I listened as he shared many stories. We came from different generations, walks of life and cities. None of that mattered as we laughed and I enjoyed learning from him. He was the epitome of a gentleman, an excellent human being. We spoke by phone until he moved out of his house, and I tried to find where I could go visit him, but was unsuccessful. I was very saddened open the newspaper the other day and see Glenn's obituary. I do know that he's no longer suffering from diabetes and other health issues that had robbed him of his health and independence. I will always remember what kind, generous and friendly man he was. He always spoke of his family with great compassion and love. I know your loss is great, but that you all have many wonderful memories and learned a lot about how to be good people from him. One can ask no more of the man then to leave such a legacy. I hope that all of the kind outpouring from the dozens of people who knew Glenn, is of some comfort to his family during this time of healing.##imported-begin##Jeff Gladstein##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Glenn was a mentor and inspiration to a lot of young boys. Personally he was a umpire, fishing instructor, and a mail carrier that came by the house on a regular basis when I was young. Depending on the season of the year, and what was in the back of his car he was driving, a gun, or fishing rod, that's when we got our mail. I Loved your Daddy too!###imported-begin###Bobby Wayne McHugh###imported-end###

“ My deepest sympathy to the Fuller family on the loss of your very special father. I have great memories growing up on Northside Drive and knowing your family. I'll never forget the day I hit a foul ball that broke out one of your windows. Your dad smiled, pointed to hit the ball straight, and said "play ball." Better stated, your dad was a kind patient man that put great value in providing a positive influence. How many dads would take the time to load up a bunch of neighborhood kids to go wade a creek in the woods near the airport? Only Glenn Fuller. I hope my memories can put a smile on your face during this difficult time.

Sincerely

“ When my Daddy died I was only 4 years old and I remember when Glenn got home from work he came to the new neighbor's house and got me and I have the sweetest memory of him carrying me on his strong shoulders and crying as he took me home with him and gave me much needed love. He was ALWAYS my surrogate Daddy. I will miss his love forever!###imported-begin###Susan Freeman Richardson###imported-end###

“ Oh all the precious memories of Mr. Fuller will be with me forever. No matter where I saw him, who he was with, or what the situation, your dad had kind words, a big hug, and most of all that special twinkle in his eye cause he was with his friends. He loved to shoot doves with my daddy and all the snacks and candy he would bring to my kids was just another great memory of the hunting. We were all friends for such a long time that not even Mr. Fuller going to heaven will make me forget what a wonderful friend he was to me and my family. I often went to see him when he was still in Lawrenceville, just as a lunch hour run, but what a joy it always was to see what he had growing out in the garden. I always left with goodies. Each of you are blessed to have had such great parents. Your mom was so special too. She always had a smile and now they are both back together. God bless you in this time and cherish your love.##imported-begin##Sharon Knight Cassidy##imported-end##
