“ Glenn and Dot have been neighbors of mine for over five years. They are the kindest and friendliest of people I have ever known. I learned many things from Glenn the “handyman” and will always be grateful of the time he spent sharing his homeowner expertise with me. Glenn loved to talk about his family and it was always evident how proud he was of them. Dot was well-loved by this man and I cannot imagine what she is going through. I am going to miss his stories, seeing him wave to me from his yard and having one of our chats that started out with a simple hello and turned into a two-hour plus conversation. I am going to miss him terribly.

To Glenn’s family, I am sorry for your loss.

“ Daryl, Regina, and Caleb,

I'm sorry for the loss of your father, father-in-law and grandfather. Although I didn't know him personally, his obituary depicted a wonderful and cherished person to his family. I will be keeping you in my thoughts and prayers for healing and a peaceful grieving process.
