“ I have fond memories that I will always cherish of visiting Grandma and Grandpa Smith:

- Catching fireflies on the patio
- Playing down by the creek
- Driving the lawn tractor
- Playing with Dolly
- Getting my first skateboard and skateboarding down the hill in front of the house
- Days on end at the ceramic shop
- Racing toothpicks in the street gutters during a down pour
- Trips to the lake house in Alabama
- Walking to the record shop in the little strip mall by the house and playing Kiss albums for granny
- Telephoning Fran Tarkenton and talking to one of his family members
- Sweet tea
- Granny in her apron in the kitchen
- Camp Stew (One of my daughter's favorite dinners)
- Vegetable dinners (Granny made bacon famous before it was popularized)
- Lima beans or is it butterbeans discussions
- Pound cake
- Grits (One summer I gained 15lbs. from all the grits I ate from the restaurant across the street from the ceramic shop. When I got back to Wisconsin none of my school clothes fit.)

I'm grateful for the unconditional love you and grandpa Smith had for me and my mom.

Rest in peace Granny,

Your grandson Kevin Smith
